

Chesapeake Chapter Company of Military Historians

Our Next Chapter Event is:

SAT 23 Jan 2010 at the Historic Washington Navy Yard

This is an important meeting for us as the newly nominated Chapter officers for the next two years will be installed. The Navy Yard features the Navy Museum, the Destroyer "Barry", Leutze Park (many bronze trophy cannon and some other objects). Willard Park (many iron guns, mainly trophies from Civil War, 14" railroad gun WWI, gun from USS Maine, and other objects.) as well as Historic buildings. The meeting should begin at 1100AM. Chapter dues of $10.00 for 2010 will also be collected.

Directions: Take Independence Ave east, past the National Mall and the US Capitol. Independence Ave merges with Pennsylvania Ave at the Library of Congress. Follow Pennsylvania Ave to 8th St SE and turn right. Take 8th St south until it ends at the Navy Yard (intersection of 8th and M St. SE.). Turn right, go two blocks to M St SE. Turn right and go two blocks to the stop light at the intersection of 6th and M St. The vehicular access gate is located at the intersection of 6th St SE and M St SE. Ample parking is available in front of the US Navy Museum. All white spaces are available for visitors. Vehicle registration and proof of insurance and photo ID are required. http://www.history.navy.mil/about/navy_yard.html Please contact the Chapter Secretary: Jeff Goodson to confirm your attendance at 410-391-9123 or chief_goodson@yahoo.com We hope to see you there!